Jeffrey (Jeff) is a partner with Bryan & Company, practicing insurance and administrative law. His areas of practice include bodily injury defence, as he grows his personal injury plaintiff's practice. Jeff also addresses tribunal appeals predominantly with the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) for employees and employers.

Focused on problem solving, he resolves issues for his clients in an efficient and timely manner.

Jeff has volunteered extensively at his children's school, and as a coach and administrator for Edmonton Minor Soccer Association, among other volunteer endeavors. He volunteered in the Criminal Law Project of Student Legal Services (SLS) while in law school and is now active in the Civil Law Project, mentoring students who are assisting community members with civil law disputes.
