Beth is an associate with Bryan & Company, where she works across a broad range of practice areas, including litigation and dispute resolution, corporate and commercial matters, employment and labour, insurance, and wills, trusts, and estates. She is passionate about developing a broad and well-rounded practice and continuing to expand her knowledge and experience across each of these areas.

Beth graduated from the University of Alberta Faculty of Law in 2025. During her undergraduate degree, she played on the Women's Hockey Team for five years, balancing athletics with her academic commitments. During her time in law school, she was actively involved in the legal community through the Women's Law Forum as Co-Chair of the Speaker Series Committee, as a member of the Graduation Committee, through volunteering with Student Legal Services' Legal Education Outreach, and as a player on the Litigators Hockey Team.

Outside of work, Beth enjoys coaching and playing hockey, skiing, running, and spending time with friends and family.
