ADMISSIONS

- Alberta (2023)

Anna practices in all areas of workplace law, advising and representing both employers and employees. Her practice includes drafting, litigation, workplace investigations, human rights matters, and privacy. In addition, she has experience in labour law, including grievance matters and collective bargaining.

Prior to joining Bryan & Company LLP, Anna practised at a boutique labour and employment law firm, where she advised clients across a range of industries. She also draws on her experience teaching with the Edmonton Public School Board, which informs her practical, people-focused approach to resolving workplace issues.

Anna is a dedicated and resourceful problem-solver who combines strong communication skills with a client-centred approach grounded in integrity and professionalism. She considers diverse perspectives and explores creative, practical solutions to complex legal issues, making her a thoughtful and effective advocate for her clients.
